

Scope:

For our proof of concept, we have created the user and request databases to persistently store our user's information and their requests. We have given the users the ability to post requests, mark requests as resolved, view others' requests, and create accounts/login. We will expand this functionality to include our tagging concept for our MVP.